Tiebreakers for all divisions

In the event of a tie for the season-long point winners in any of the divisions, the following rules will apply to determine the applicable seeds in the bracket:

1. The player that finished in 1st place (i.e. 20 points) in the most events during the WMGA season within their division.
2. The player with the best head-to-head record against their fellow competitor with whom they are tied – i.e. for the weeks in which both players participated the player that had the better individual score in the most events will win the tiebreaker
3. The player with the higher “per event” average – i.e. this will be the player that played in fewer events of the two players that are tied since the season point totals are equal.
4. The player with the lowest aggregate score in common weeks played – i.e. sum up all of the common weeks played and the player with the lower total score wins the tiebreaker.
5. Flip a coin.
